

CLAIMS OF THE TWO MANAGERS ARE FAR APART

Associated Press Fails to Reconcile Various Statements, and Gives Some Unofficial Figures of Its Own.

COMMITTEE HOLDS KEY TO SITUATION

After Contests Have Been Decided Conclusion Is Reached Cummins and La Follette May Hold Whip Hand.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 9.—The Republican national committee will resume tomorrow morning its consideration of the large number of contests for places on the temporary roll of the national convention. Upon the results of its deliberations depends to a great extent the control of the convention.

The contests in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida and Georgia, which were decided last week, added 72 delegates to the strength of the committee. Whether it would fold a "strong-arm" policy, "giving the whole business to Taft," as the Roosevelt adherents now claim, or whether the contests still to be decided will give some to Taft and some to Roosevelt, is a matter of much speculation.

It seemed likely tonight that Indiana cases, involving twelve delegates, four at large and two each in the First, Third, Fourth and Thirtieth congressional districts—would be taken up when the committee meets at 10 a. m., but the cases from Arizona, (six delegates at large) and from the Fourth district of California, (two delegates), which were postponed, may be considered before Indiana.

Balance of Power.

The vital importance of the decisions of the national committee upon the contests is apparent to any one studying the lists of delegates. Such study incidentally discloses the great weight which may attach to the 25 delegates from Wisconsin and ten from North Dakota, instructed for La Follette, and the ten from Iowa, instructed for Cummins.

There is no reconciling the conflicting claims of the Taft and Roosevelt managers regarding the respective strength of their followings; each is figuring into his tables delegations emphatically claimed by the other on the strength of convention endorsements, alleged pledges, and other grounds.

Unofficial Figures.

Reasonably dependable, however, seem the figures collated by the Associated Press, from which can be derived what may be described as the "bare bones" of the situation. These figures, which are unofficial and by no means guaranteed, follow:

Whole number of delegates, 1078.
Necessary for nomination, 540.
Instructed for Roosevelt and uncontested, 411.
Instructed for Taft and uncontested, 201.
Instructed for La Follette (no contests), 28.
Instructed for Cummins (no contests), 10.
Uninstructed (including New York's 30), 168.
Contested, 264.
Of the 264 contested the national committee has thus far given Taft 12.

Analysis of Figures.

The figures analyze as follows:
Instructed for Roosevelt and uncontested:
California, 24; Illinois, 56; Indiana, 10; Kansas, 18; Kentucky, 1; Maryland, 14; Massachusetts, 18; Michigan, 10; Minnesota, 24; Missouri, 12; Nebraska, 15; New Jersey, 28; North Carolina, 18; Ohio, 34; Oklahoma, 16; Oregon, 10; Pennsylvania, 67; South Dakota, 10; Tennessee, 1; Texas, 5; Vermont, 2; West Virginia, 15; Total, 411.

Instructed for Taft and uncontested (including the seventy-two given him last week by the national committee's decision):
Alabama, 8; Colorado, 12; Connecticut, 10; Illinois, 20; Indiana, 16; Kansas, 18; Kentucky, 1; Massachusetts, 18; Michigan, 12; Mississippi, 2; Missouri, 21; Nevada, 6; New Hampshire, 8; Ohio, 14; Oklahoma, 16; Oregon, 10; Pennsylvania, 67; Rhode Island, 10; South Carolina, 10; Tennessee, 1; Utah, 4; Vermont, 2; Virginia, 4; Wyoming, 6; Hawaii, 2; Philippines, 2; Porto Rico, 2. Total, 201.

Instructed for La Follette (no contests):
North Dakota, 10; Wisconsin, 25. Total, 35.

Instructed for Cummins (no contest):
Iowa, 10.

Uninstructed:
Uninstructed and uncontested:
Arkansas, 2; Connecticut, 4; Delaware, 6; Idaho, 8; Indiana, 4; Maine, 12; Michigan, 2; Missouri, 12; Montana, 10; New Mexico, 8; Vermont, 4. Total, 168.

Contested by either Roosevelt or Taft:
Alabama, 18; Arizona, 6; Arkansas, 18; California, 2; Florida, 12; Georgia, 23; Idaho, 12; Kentucky, 18; Louisiana, 20; Michigan, 6; Mississippi, 15; Missouri, 14; North Carolina, 18; Oklahoma, 16; South Carolina, 2; Texas, 20; Virginia, 20; Washington, 14; Alaska, 2. District of Columbia, 2. Total, 264.

Of these contests, the national committee Friday and Saturday decided in Taft's favor all of those from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida and Georgia—total 72.

Out of these figures may be made combinations to suit almost any political taste. It depends on how the national committee decides the contests; who gets the uninstructed delegates, and whether the delegates now listed one way or the other "stay put."

One Roosevelt Strategist in Chicago Fight

ORMSBY M'HARG.

TAFT AIDES PLAN TO FOIL PLOTS OF FOES

(Continued From Page One.)

grim and tactful all day, talking but little, but predicting victory every time he opened his mouth. It was on his suggestion that the Taft vigilantes were appointed. This committee, which will keep active till convention time, is composed as follows:

Boles Penrose, six feet six, weighing three hundred and fifty pounds, chairman.
Murray Crane, five feet eight, weighing about one hundred and ten pounds, general director.
Joseph B. Keating, practical politician of Indiana.

William Burns, loud voice, short of stature.
Otto Stiefel, brewer of Missouri.
Governor Mead of Vermont, vice presidential candidate.
T. A. Marlow, national committeeman of Montana.

Indiana Contests Today.

This committee has power to impress into its service every Taft man not otherwise engaged. What will happen to the poor delegates who will fall simultaneously into the hands of the rival vigilantes as they reach town is sorrowful to think upon.

The Indiana contests are to be taken up tomorrow. Some of these contests are genuine, which is more than can be said for most of those that have gone before.

The Taft delegates-at-large, four in number, consist of Charles Warren Fairbank, Harry New, James Watson and J. D. Oliver, the plow manufacturer. They were elected by a convention which was the result of the Indiana primaries characterized by the colonel as "the crookedest ever held in the country." The other contests are in the First, Third and Thirtieth Indiana districts, in all of which fraud is charged.

Most of this fraud is attributed to Joseph Keating and Keating is going to take the Indiana contests to the convention, where he said about him. Prospects for a rough house before the day is over seem therefore, to be extremely bright.

BALTIMORE READY FOR DEMOCRATIC MEETING

By International News Service.
BALTIMORE, June 9.—All preparations for the entertainment of the 1912 delegates to the national Democratic convention have been completed and the city is ready to receive the delegates arriving. Colonel John I. Martin, sergeant-at-arms of the Democratic national committee, arrived tonight from St. Louis and will open the headquarters of the national committee tomorrow upon the arrival of National Chairman Norman E. Mack.

Trey Woodson, secretary of the national committee, telegraphed tonight that he would be unable to reach Baltimore for several days, owing to the sudden illness of his wife in New York.

The finishing touches have been put to the big armory to prevent vandalism.

WE PAY

3% On Checking Accounts.
4% On Savings Deposits.
6% On Secured Certificates.

We rent Safety Deposit Boxes for $2.00 per year.

SALT LAKE SECURITY & TRUST COMPANY,
32 MAIN ST.
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS
$400,000.00

ONE ROOSEVELT STRATEGIST IN CHICAGO FIGHT

Associated Press Fails to Reconcile Various Statements, and Gives Some Unofficial Figures of Its Own.

COMMITTEE HOLDS KEY TO SITUATION

After Contests Have Been Decided Conclusion Is Reached Cummins and La Follette May Hold Whip Hand.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 9.—The Republican national committee will resume tomorrow morning its consideration of the large number of contests for places on the temporary roll of the national convention. Upon the results of its deliberations depends to a great extent the control of the convention.

The contests in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida and Georgia, which were decided last week, added 72 delegates to the strength of the committee. Whether it would fold a "strong-arm" policy, "giving the whole business to Taft," as the Roosevelt adherents now claim, or whether the contests still to be decided will give some to Taft and some to Roosevelt, is a matter of much speculation.

It seemed likely tonight that Indiana cases, involving twelve delegates, four at large and two each in the First, Third, Fourth and Thirtieth congressional districts—would be taken up when the committee meets at 10 a. m., but the cases from Arizona, (six delegates at large) and from the Fourth district of California, (two delegates), which were postponed, may be considered before Indiana.

Balance of Power.

The vital importance of the decisions of the national committee upon the contests is apparent to any one studying the lists of delegates. Such study incidentally discloses the great weight which may attach to the 25 delegates from Wisconsin and ten from North Dakota, instructed for La Follette, and the ten from Iowa, instructed for Cummins.

There is no reconciling the conflicting claims of the Taft and Roosevelt managers regarding the respective strength of their followings; each is figuring into his tables delegations emphatically claimed by the other on the strength of convention endorsements, alleged pledges, and other grounds.

Unofficial Figures.

Reasonably dependable, however, seem the figures collated by the Associated Press, from which can be derived what may be described as the "bare bones" of the situation. These figures, which are unofficial and by no means guaranteed, follow:

Whole number of delegates, 1078.
Necessary for nomination, 540.
Instructed for Roosevelt and uncontested, 411.
Instructed for Taft and uncontested, 201.
Instructed for La Follette (no contests), 28.
Instructed for Cummins (no contests), 10.
Uninstructed (including New York's 30), 168.
Contested, 264.
Of the 264 contested the national committee has thus far given Taft 12.

Analysis of Figures.

The figures analyze as follows:
Instructed for Roosevelt and uncontested:
California, 24; Illinois, 56; Indiana, 10; Kansas, 18; Kentucky, 1; Maryland, 14; Massachusetts, 18; Michigan, 10; Minnesota, 24; Missouri, 12; Nebraska, 15; New Jersey, 28; North Carolina, 18; Ohio, 34; Oklahoma, 16; Oregon, 10; Pennsylvania, 67; South Dakota, 10; Tennessee, 1; Texas, 5; Vermont, 2; West Virginia, 15; Total, 411.

Instructed for Taft and uncontested (including the seventy-two given him last week by the national committee's decision):
Alabama, 8; Colorado, 12; Connecticut, 10; Illinois, 20; Indiana, 16; Kansas, 18; Kentucky, 1; Massachusetts, 18; Michigan, 12; Mississippi, 2; Missouri, 21; Nevada, 6; New Hampshire, 8; Ohio, 14; Oklahoma, 16; Oregon, 10; Pennsylvania, 67; Rhode Island, 10; South Carolina, 10; Tennessee, 1; Utah, 4; Vermont, 2; Virginia, 4; Wyoming, 6; Hawaii, 2; Philippines, 2; Porto Rico, 2. Total, 201.

Instructed for La Follette (no contests):
North Dakota, 10; Wisconsin, 25. Total, 35.

Instructed for Cummins (no contest):
Iowa, 10.

Uninstructed:
Uninstructed and uncontested:
Arkansas, 2; Connecticut, 4; Delaware, 6; Idaho, 8; Indiana, 4; Maine, 12; Michigan, 2; Missouri, 12; Montana, 10; New Mexico, 8; Vermont, 4. Total, 168.

Contested by either Roosevelt or Taft:
Alabama, 18; Arizona, 6; Arkansas, 18; California, 2; Florida, 12; Georgia, 23; Idaho, 12; Kentucky, 18; Louisiana, 20; Michigan, 6; Mississippi, 15; Missouri, 14; North Carolina, 18; Oklahoma, 16; South Carolina, 2; Texas, 20; Virginia, 20; Washington, 14; Alaska, 2. District of Columbia, 2. Total, 264.

Of these contests, the national committee Friday and Saturday decided in Taft's favor all of those from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida and Georgia—total 72.

Out of these figures may be made combinations to suit almost any political taste. It depends on how the national committee decides the contests; who gets the uninstructed delegates, and whether the delegates now listed one way or the other "stay put."

ONE ROOSEVELT STRATEGIST IN CHICAGO FIGHT

Associated Press Fails to Reconcile Various Statements, and Gives Some Unofficial Figures of Its Own.

COMMITTEE HOLDS KEY TO SITUATION

After Contests Have Been Decided Conclusion Is Reached Cummins and La Follette May Hold Whip Hand.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 9.—The Republican national committee will resume tomorrow morning its consideration of the large number of contests for places on the temporary roll of the national convention. Upon the results of its deliberations depends to a great extent the control of the convention.

The contests in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida and Georgia, which were decided last week, added 72 delegates to the strength of the committee. Whether it would fold a "strong-arm" policy, "giving the whole business to Taft," as the Roosevelt adherents now claim, or whether the contests still to be decided will give some to Taft and some to Roosevelt, is a matter of much speculation.

It seemed likely tonight that Indiana cases, involving twelve delegates, four at large and two each in the First, Third, Fourth and Thirtieth congressional districts—would be taken up when the committee meets at 10 a. m., but the cases from Arizona, (six delegates at large) and from the Fourth district of California, (two delegates), which were postponed, may be considered before Indiana.

Balance of Power.

The vital importance of the decisions of the national committee upon the contests is apparent to any one studying the lists of delegates. Such study incidentally discloses the great weight which may attach to the 25 delegates from Wisconsin and ten from North Dakota, instructed for La Follette, and the ten from Iowa, instructed for Cummins.

There is no reconciling the conflicting claims of the Taft and Roosevelt managers regarding the respective strength of their followings; each is figuring into his tables delegations emphatically claimed by the other on the strength of convention endorsements, alleged pledges, and other grounds.

Unofficial Figures.

Reasonably dependable, however, seem the figures collated by the Associated Press, from which can be derived what may be described as the "bare bones" of the situation. These figures, which are unofficial and by no means guaranteed, follow:

Whole number of delegates, 1078.
Necessary for nomination, 540.
Instructed for Roosevelt and uncontested, 411.
Instructed for Taft and uncontested, 201.
Instructed for La Follette (no contests), 28.
Instructed for Cummins (no contests), 10.
Uninstructed (including New York's 30), 168.
Contested, 264.
Of the 264 contested the national committee has thus far given Taft 12.

Analysis of Figures.

The figures analyze as follows:
Instructed for Roosevelt and uncontested:
California, 24; Illinois, 56; Indiana, 10; Kansas, 18; Kentucky, 1; Maryland, 14; Massachusetts, 18; Michigan, 10; Minnesota, 24; Missouri, 12; Nebraska, 15; New Jersey, 28; North Carolina, 18; Ohio, 34; Oklahoma, 16; Oregon, 10; Pennsylvania, 67; South Dakota, 10; Tennessee, 1; Texas, 5; Vermont, 2; West Virginia, 15; Total, 411.

Instructed for Taft and uncontested (including the seventy-two given him last week by the national committee's decision):
Alabama, 8; Colorado, 12; Connecticut, 10; Illinois, 20; Indiana, 16; Kansas, 18; Kentucky, 1; Massachusetts, 18; Michigan, 12; Mississippi, 2; Missouri, 21; Nevada, 6; New Hampshire, 8; Ohio, 14; Oklahoma, 16; Oregon, 10; Pennsylvania, 67; Rhode Island, 10; South Carolina, 10; Tennessee, 1; Utah, 4; Vermont, 2; Virginia, 4; Wyoming, 6; Hawaii, 2; Philippines, 2; Porto Rico, 2. Total, 201.

Instructed for La Follette (no contests):
North Dakota, 10; Wisconsin, 25. Total, 35.

Instructed for Cummins (no contest):
Iowa, 10.

Uninstructed:
Uninstructed and uncontested:
Arkansas, 2; Connecticut, 4; Delaware, 6; Idaho, 8; Indiana, 4; Maine, 12; Michigan, 2; Missouri, 12; Montana, 10; New Mexico, 8; Vermont, 4. Total, 168.

Contested by either Roosevelt or Taft:
Alabama, 18; Arizona, 6; Arkansas, 18; California, 2; Florida, 12; Georgia, 23; Idaho, 12; Kentucky, 18; Louisiana, 20; Michigan, 6; Mississippi, 15; Missouri, 14; North Carolina, 18; Oklahoma, 16; South Carolina, 2; Texas, 20; Virginia, 20; Washington, 14; Alaska, 2. District of Columbia, 2. Total, 264.

Of these contests, the national committee Friday and Saturday decided in Taft's favor all of those from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida and Georgia—total 72.

Out of these figures may be made combinations to suit almost any political taste. It depends on how the national committee decides the contests; who gets the uninstructed delegates, and whether the delegates now listed one way or the other "stay put."

Manager of Campaign For The President

WILLIAM B. M'KINLEY.

to realize he might not be believed, was probably exaggerating a trifle, but it shows a depth of feeling possessed by the Roosevelt man who are directing the fight here. This depth of feeling comes from the knowledge that the threatened action of the committee in throwing out the delegations would put the Roosevelt man hopelessly in the minority.

The inside figures obtained from the Roosevelt headquarters today show that they believe they have 404 delegates, tied, against and ahead in storage at the time being. To these they expect to add the forty-six La Follette and Cummins delegates, and the lowest possible total would be 450. This is just the number of delegates needed to nominate a man, half of the total roll of delegates in the convention being 539. These figures do not include any of the contests. They show clearly just how little Roosevelt can afford to have any solid delegations thrown out on account of technicalities.

TAFT AIDES PLAN TO FOIL PLOTS OF FOES

(Continued From Page One.)

grim and tactful all day, talking but little, but predicting victory every time he opened his mouth. It was on his suggestion that the Taft vigilantes were appointed. This committee, which will keep active till convention time, is composed as follows:

Boles Penrose, six feet six, weighing three hundred and fifty pounds, chairman.
Murray Crane, five feet eight, weighing about one hundred and ten pounds, general director.
Joseph B. Keating, practical politician of Indiana.

William Burns, loud voice, short of stature.
Otto Stiefel, brewer of Missouri.
Governor Mead of Vermont, vice presidential candidate.
T. A. Marlow, national committeeman of Montana.

Indiana Contests Today.

This committee has power to impress into its service every Taft man not otherwise engaged. What will happen to the poor delegates who will fall simultaneously into the hands of the rival vigilantes as they reach town is sorrowful to think upon.

The Indiana contests are to be taken up tomorrow. Some of these contests are genuine, which is more than can be said for most of those that have gone before.

The Taft delegates-at-large, four in number, consist of Charles Warren Fairbank, Harry New, James Watson and J. D. Oliver, the plow manufacturer. They were elected by a convention which was the result of the Indiana primaries characterized by the colonel as "the crookedest ever held in the country." The other contests are in the First, Third and Thirtieth Indiana districts, in all of which fraud is charged.

Most of this fraud is attributed to Joseph Keating and Keating is going to take the Indiana contests to the convention, where he said about him. Prospects for a rough house before the day is over seem therefore, to be extremely bright.

BALTIMORE READY FOR DEMOCRATIC MEETING

By International News Service.
BALTIMORE, June 9.—All preparations for the entertainment of the 1912 delegates to the national Democratic convention have been completed and the city is ready to receive the delegates arriving. Colonel John I. Martin, sergeant-at-arms of the Democratic national committee, arrived tonight from St. Louis and will open the headquarters of the national committee tomorrow upon the arrival of National Chairman Norman E. Mack.

Trey Woodson, secretary of the national committee, telegraphed tonight that he would be unable to reach Baltimore for several days, owing to the sudden illness of his wife in New York.

The finishing touches have been put to the big armory to prevent vandalism.

WE PAY

3% On Checking Accounts.
4% On Savings Deposits.
6% On Secured Certificates.

We rent Safety Deposit Boxes for $2.00 per year.

SALT LAKE SECURITY & TRUST COMPANY,
32 MAIN ST.
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS
$400,000.00

Manager of Campaign For The President

WILLIAM B. M'KINLEY.

to realize he might not be believed, was probably exaggerating a trifle, but it shows a depth of feeling possessed by the Roosevelt man who are directing the fight here. This depth of feeling comes from the knowledge that the threatened action of the committee in throwing out the delegations would put the Roosevelt man hopelessly in the minority.

The inside figures obtained from the Roosevelt headquarters today show that they believe they have 404 delegates, tied, against and ahead in storage at the time being. To these they expect to add the forty-six La Follette and Cummins delegates, and the lowest possible total would be 450. This is just the number of delegates needed to nominate a man, half of the total roll of delegates in the convention being 539. These figures do not include any of the contests. They show clearly just how little Roosevelt can afford to have any solid delegations thrown out on account of technicalities.

TAFT AIDES PLAN TO FOIL PLOTS OF FOES

(Continued From Page One.)

grim and tactful all day, talking but little, but predicting victory every time he opened his mouth. It was on his suggestion that the Taft vigilantes were appointed. This committee, which will keep active till convention time, is composed as follows:

Boles Penrose, six feet six, weighing three hundred and fifty pounds, chairman.
Murray Crane, five feet eight, weighing about one hundred and ten pounds, general director.
Joseph B. Keating, practical politician of Indiana.

William Burns, loud voice, short of stature.
Otto Stiefel, brewer of Missouri.
Governor Mead of Vermont, vice presidential candidate.
T. A. Marlow, national committeeman of Montana.

Indiana Contests Today.

This committee has power to impress into its service every Taft man not otherwise engaged. What will happen to the poor delegates who will fall simultaneously into the hands of the rival vigilantes as they reach town is sorrowful to think upon.

The Indiana contests are to be taken up tomorrow. Some of these contests are genuine, which is more than can be said for most of those that have gone before.

The Taft delegates-at-large, four in number, consist of Charles Warren Fairbank, Harry New, James Watson and J. D. Oliver, the plow manufacturer. They were elected by a convention which was the result of the Indiana primaries characterized by the colonel as "the crookedest ever held in the country." The other contests are in the First, Third and Thirtieth Indiana districts, in all of which fraud is charged.

Most of this fraud is attributed to Joseph Keating and Keating is going to take the Indiana contests to the convention, where he said about him. Prospects for a rough house before the day is over seem therefore, to be extremely bright.

BALTIMORE READY FOR DEMOCRATIC MEETING

By International News Service.
BALTIMORE, June 9.—All preparations for the entertainment of the 1912 delegates to the national Democratic convention have been completed and the city is ready to receive the delegates arriving. Colonel John I. Martin, sergeant-at-arms of the Democratic national committee, arrived tonight from St. Louis and will open the headquarters of the national committee tomorrow upon the arrival of National Chairman Norman E. Mack.

Trey Woodson, secretary of the national committee, telegraphed tonight that he would be unable to reach Baltimore for several days, owing to the sudden illness of his wife in New York.

The finishing touches have been put to the big armory to prevent vandalism.

WE PAY

3% On Checking Accounts.
4% On Savings Deposits.
6% On Secured Certificates.

We rent Safety Deposit Boxes for $2.00 per year.

SALT LAKE SECURITY & TRUST COMPANY,
32 MAIN ST.
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS
$400,000.00

Manager of Campaign For The President

WILLIAM B. M'KINLEY.

to realize he might not be believed, was probably exaggerating a trifle, but it shows a depth of feeling possessed by the Roosevelt man who are directing the fight here. This depth of feeling comes from the knowledge that the threatened action of the committee in throwing out the delegations would put the Roosevelt man hopelessly in the minority.

The inside figures obtained from the Roosevelt headquarters today show that they believe they have 404 delegates, tied, against and ahead in storage at the time being. To these they expect to add the forty-six La Follette and Cummins delegates, and the lowest possible total would be 450. This is just the number of delegates needed to nominate a man, half of the total roll of delegates in the convention being 539. These figures do not include any of the contests. They show clearly just how little Roosevelt can afford to have any solid delegations thrown out on account of technicalities.

TAFT AIDES PLAN TO FOIL PLOTS OF FOES

(Continued From Page One.)

grim and tactful all day, talking but little, but predicting victory every time he opened his mouth. It was on his suggestion that the Taft vigilantes were appointed. This committee, which will keep active till convention time, is composed as follows:

Boles Penrose, six feet six, weighing three hundred and fifty pounds, chairman.
Murray Crane, five feet eight, weighing about one hundred and ten pounds, general director.
Joseph B. Keating, practical politician of Indiana.

William Burns, loud voice, short of stature.
Otto Stiefel, brewer of Missouri.
Governor Mead of Vermont, vice presidential candidate.
T. A. Marlow, national committeeman of Montana.

Indiana Contests Today.

This committee has power to impress into its service every Taft man not otherwise engaged. What will happen to the poor delegates who will fall simultaneously into the hands of the rival vigilantes as they reach town is sorrowful to think upon.

The Indiana contests are to be taken up tomorrow. Some of these contests are genuine, which is more than can be said for most of those that have gone before.

The Taft delegates-at-large, four in number, consist of Charles Warren Fairbank, Harry New, James Watson and J. D. Oliver, the plow manufacturer. They were elected by a convention which was the result of the Indiana primaries characterized by the colonel as "the crookedest ever held in the country." The other contests are in the First, Third and Thirtieth Indiana districts, in all of which fraud is charged.

Most of this fraud is attributed to Joseph Keating and Keating is going to take the Indiana contests to the convention, where he said about him. Prospects for a rough house before the day is over seem therefore, to be extremely bright.

BALTIMORE READY FOR DEMOCRATIC MEETING

By International News Service.
BALTIMORE, June 9.—All preparations for the entertainment of the 1912 delegates to the national Democratic convention have been completed and the city is ready to receive the delegates arriving. Colonel John I. Martin, sergeant-at-arms of the Democratic national committee, arrived tonight from St. Louis and will open the headquarters of the national committee tomorrow upon the arrival of National Chairman Norman E. Mack.

Trey Woodson, secretary of the national committee, telegraphed tonight that he would be unable to reach Baltimore for several days, owing to the sudden illness of his wife in New York.

The finishing touches have been put to the big armory to prevent vandalism.

WE PAY

3% On Checking Accounts.
4% On Savings Deposits.
6% On Secured Certificates.

We rent Safety Deposit Boxes for $2.00 per year.

SALT LAKE SECURITY & TRUST COMPANY,
32 MAIN ST.
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS
$400,000.00

SAVE A LITTLE EACH PAY DAY
SOME difficulty might be experienced in taking to raise a small amount of money. But a substantial fund may be gradually accumulated by depositing a little each week with this bank. The sources of the bank, taken together with its prudent management, assure the safety for all funds entrusted to its care, and the rate of interest is well paid on savings accounts. The rate of interest is well